

Chafer fuel comparison table

 Shared Benefits	 Handy Wick	 Handy Gel	 Handy Solid
South African company and brand	Flame corporation is the sole manufacturer of this chafer fuel type in South Africa	Methanol based fuel in a gel consistency	Methanol based fuel – in a solid “paste” consistency
Brand name, quality products	Safest chafer fuel available in any market	Packaged in cases of 24’s and 72’s, 5 litre bags (papsak), 5 litre bottles, and 5 litre tubs	High heat - no soot residue or build up
Ease of use packaging	Uses a clean burning fuel that is non-flammable	195 grams nett per tin - 3 hour burn time	Packaged in cases of 24’s and 72’s and 5 litre tubs
All packaging is resealable so wastage is limited and can be used for more than one event or function	Non-spill design – sealed tin with screw top lid and wick thereby eliminating free liquid spills	Handy Fill – 4 X 5 litre bags (papsak) per box - equivalent to approximately 80 tins	195 grams nett per tin - 3 hour burn time
Soot free	WILL NOT burn if spilled	5 litre tubs and bottles – equivalent to approximately 20 tins per tub/bottle	5 litre tubs - equivalent to approximately 80 tins – 3 hour burn time
Lights easily, burns evenly throughout burn cycle	Hottest burn heat	Available in red and blue	Available in red
	Adjustable wick giving the right heat for every food setting
	No product evaporation between settings
	Packaged in cases of 36 - 3 hour and 6 hour burn times - with a twist cap		